You are 100% safe with Roulette Systems Studio and no casino will be able to detect you as Roulette Systems Studio is based on image recognition technology. Roulette Systems Studio is the only tool that is capable of working on the principle of image recognition. All the other robots available in the market either insert a .dll or .exe file which can be detected easily by the casino. It is impossible to detect Roulette Systems Studio because as mentioned already it can recognize images and the landed numbers.

Don't get cheated by other roulette robots you find in the market; they are not real robots in the fuller sense of the word. You will be performing all the functions of the roulette game and not those so called robots when you buy those applications.

How can we say this? You can reason it out yourself - if you as a player have to recognize the landed numbers to move to the next step then you are automatically required to perform the bet employing a roulette strategy and also perform the spin procedure and these are the main functions of playing roulette. If you are performing these functions then there are no robots there that function. With Roulette Systems Studio you just need to tell how much money you would like to make and click start new game and the robot will take care of the rest in executing your game and make the money you told it to make. It is high time that you stop getting cheated by these cheap companies and it is your responsibility to identify the real roulette robot from the ones that just claim to be robots. Try your genuine roulette robot Free Roulette Systems Studio Trial Download today. It is more appropriate to call the software agents that operate as robots as 'Bots' because the Roulette Systems Studio robot do not have physical robotic parts. Roulette Systems Studio robot or bots can interact with you the player in real time and it can recognize the landed numbers, it can engage in real time casino betting by applying the best roulette strategy needed for the situation and even perform the roulette spin action unlike the other so called robots.

It is a wonderful experience to win and people prepare themselves for years together to experience this feeling at least once in their life time but Roulette Systems Studio will make winning your order of life. Winning will become your normal mode of life. Don't you think that it is a tool that you should possess immediately? What stops you from enjoying this winning experience?
